Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies

BULLETIN No. 7

The dates for the Official Trail Rides and Pow-Wow of 1926 have now been fixed as follows:

General Rides and Central Pow-Wow

FIVE-DAY RIDE—July 29-August 2

From Lake Louise up the Bow Valley to Mosquito Creek, with side trip to Bow Pass. Then over the Molar Pass and up the Little Pipestone to Baker Lake, and so by Ptarmigan Lake, through the Ptarmigan Valley, down Corral Creek back to Lake Louise. Mileage about 20 miles each day for the first 3 days, 16 miles on 4th day, and 9 miles on 5th day.

THREE-DAY RIDE—July 31-August 2

From the Banff-Lake Louise road near Johnstone Canyon up Johnstone Creek and Baker Creek to Baker Lake, and so by Ptarmigan Lake, through the Ptarmigan Valley, down Corral Creek to Lake Louise. Mileage 14 miles each day first 2 days and 9 miles on 3rd day.

POW-WOW

On August 1st, at the joint camp in the Ptarmigan Valley, on a bench facing the group of mountains comprising the Valley of the Ten Peaks, Mount Temple and Mount Victoria. It is expected that the two parties will unite here about lunch time, and as this Valley is very beautiful, Trail Riders will not desire to hurry on too quickly. There is prospect also of a party from the Jasper Squadron coming down to join the Pow-Wow, as the date of the Jasper Pow-Wow is being fixed in sufficient time ahead of the Ptarmigan Pow-Wow to permit those who wish to participate in both—see page 4 of this Bulletin.

On August 2nd, after lunch, the whole party will ride in grand cavalcade to Lake Louise, where they will disband. In the evening the Annual General Meeting will be held for the election of officers, etc., at the Chateau.

The rates for these rides have been kept as low as possible, namely, $35.00 for the three-day ride, including motor transportation from Banff or Lake Louise to the point where the horses will be in waiting, and $60.00 for the five-day ride. This includes, in the case of each ride, luncheon and supper on the first day and breakfast and luncheon on the last day, with three meals on the intervening days. Cheque for $10 per person must accompany each request for reservation, and Trail Riders must specify whether they wish to take the three-day or the five-day ride; also in the case of the three-day ride whether they intend to motor from Banff or Lake Louise. Those who bring their own saddle horses will be allowed a rebate of $10.00 on the three-day ride and $15.00 on the five-day ride. As the indications are that the attendance will be larger than last year, and the number of saddle horses available is limited, it has been decided to close the reservation list on July 24th. Payments must be completed before the rides start.

Each Trail Rider must bring sleeping bag or two warm blankets, and change of underclothing, with warm overcoat for the campfire, is recommended. Weight of such personal equipment is limited to thirty-five pounds. No grips or suit-cases difficult to pack or liable to get damaged can be accepted.

The Commissioner of Parks has kindly undertaken to see that the trails are in good shape.

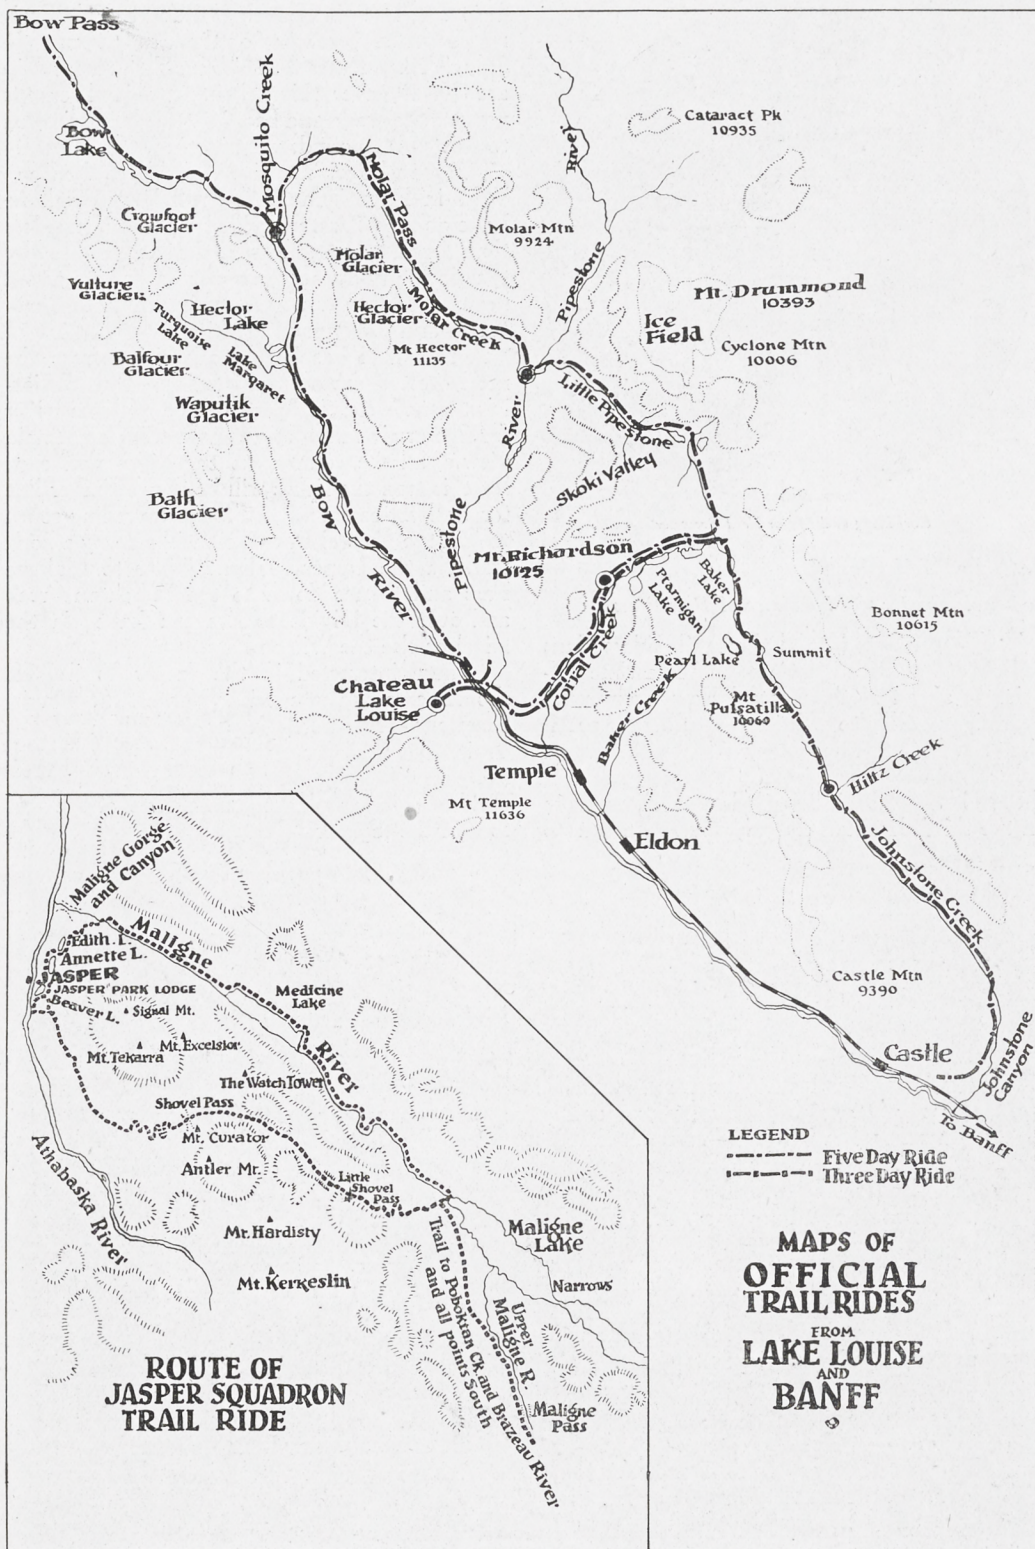

Our president, Mr. J. M. Wardle, is preparing a detailed map which will be available for those participating in the Trail Rides and which will form a highly interesting souvenir, as it contains information not otherwise readily accessible.

Plans for Trail Rides and Pow-Wow

The Jasper Squadron of the Trail Riders plans to hold a Trail Ride and Pow-Wow at a time sufficiently ahead of the Central Pow-Wow in the Ptarmigan Valley to enable its members to participate in both. The Jasper Ride will start on July 19th and travel south via Medicine Lake: the local Pow-Wow is being held at Maligne Lake on the third day, namely July 21st. Return to Jasper will be via Shovel Pass and Buffalo Prairie, Jasper being reached on the fifth day, namely July 23rd. Rates for this five-day round trip are $60.00, everything being provided except personal baggage and bedding, this being limited to thirty-five pounds per person.

Those who wish to ride through to the Pow-Wow in Ptarmigan Valley will leave Maligne Lake on July 22nd, provided a party of not less than 5 undertakes the trip, the rates quoted by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Jasper Squadron being $350.00 per person taking in both Pow-Wows and the Annual Meeting.

A new trail has been made rising from the north-west shore of Maligne Lake, thus obviating the necessity of following the Maligne River for five or six miles, and commanding a splendid view of all the country to the south and east. By this trail the riders will be above timber line for at least seven miles. Those travelling south to join the general Pow-Wow will ride by a good trail via the Upper Maligne River to Maligne Pass and thence down to the Poboktan Creek and over the Divide to Brazeau Lake via the Nigel or else the Wilcox Pass.

Those interested in the Jasper Trail Ride should communicate with Herbert S. Davis, Secretary-Treasurer, Jasper Squadron of the Trail Riders, Jasper, Alta. The Jasper Squadron had a very successful season last summer, Field-Marshal Earl Haig being one of the first to sign the register.

TRAILS FOR FISHERMEN

Since time immemorial, plain and coast tribes of Indians pierced the mountain solitudes in search of food. They established main trunk lines of travel through the most accessible valleys.

One way of fishing a lake. Get the guide to make a raft.

Over a century ago, a straggling band of Sioux warriors from the plains of the United States, cut off from the main body of Sioux while travelling in Canada, by war parties of Blackfeet and Sarcees, fled before their hostile pursuers to the protection of the Crees of Alberta. After marrying Cree wives, this band of Sioux established their homes in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, to explore every nook and cranny of the mountains for two hundred miles north of the Bow River and across the present boundary between Canada and the United States to the mountain ranges in Montana.

They fought with the Kootenays of British Columbia and the Blackfeet of Alberta, driving them from the mountain fastnesses and establishing a right by might and crafty mountain fighting to call this new land, home. The enemy tacitly acknowledged this right, calling the newcomers, Stoneys, most probably because they cooked their foods on hot stones.

For six months every year, until 1904, the Stoneys and their families led a nomadic existence in the mountain valleys, living on the game in the mountains. By this date the Stoneys numbered some five hundred lodges. Each family had its own territory to hunt. Faced with a possible extermination of wild life in the mountains, the Government withdrew the hunting privileges in the National Parks in 1904.

But as far as the "pale face" was concerned, the Indians' work was finished. They had opened to him the most inaccessible areas in the heart of the Rockies, making it possible for men and women to forsake the cares of the world by seeking solace without privation far in the solitary interior of the Rockies in the grandeur of mountain scenery, in the health-giving mountain air and sunshine, in the natural zoological gardens where animals live to multiply in peace, and in trout fishing in crystal-clear mountain streams and turquoise-blue glacial lakes, gems in a rugged setting of pine, spruce and time-worn rocks.

Indians seldom fished in the mountains, for the size of catch seldom repaid the trouble taken in attempting to spear a comparatively small species. For centuries, while the Indian reduced the game, the fish multiplied unmolested, until to-day, trout fishing possibilities in the streams and lakes of the Rockies, not too close to the railway stations, are beyond estimation. Hundreds of miles of brooks invite the angler.

The ideal way to fish in the Canadian Rockies is to combine your fishing with a trail riding and camping trip. The trout rise to the fly in the evening and morning, just the time when the guides are making or breaking camp, and camp is usually pitched beside a stream or lake. The day in between is spent in riding to a new camp with all the excitement of looking forward to the sport of fishing in new waters. A ten or twelve day trip planned in this way, with the aid of an experienced guide, will satisfy the most blase fisherman.

SONGS FOR THE TRAIL

The Song Sheet which made such a hit at our Pow-Wow last year is under revision, and the Secretary would be very glad of any suggestion as to new popular tunes to which appropriate words could be written. In the meanwhile Trail Riders may practise the Canadian version of OUT YONDER, the melody of the chorus of which is here printed, by kind permission of Leo. Feist Limited, Toronto, Canada. Copies of the whole song may be obtained at any Canadian music store, while those who find any difficulty in getting the Canadian version in the United States can sing these words to the American edition. This song has already made a great hit as a Fox Trot, and is frequently heard over the radio. Write to your favourite broadcasting station or the Manager of your local vaudeville theatre, and you may get it on a public programme.

OUT YONDER (Canadian Version)

Over the Rocky Mountain trails I know,
Up where the Alpine roses blow,
There are the valleys we can wander through,
There let me honeymoon with you.

Refrain

Out yonder, out yonder, I'll ride the trails with you,
Out yonder we'll wander and bid all care adieu!
We'll roam there; find home there; we'll take a tent for two—
Out yonder, out yonder, where hearts are always true.

Out where the rivers through the canyons flow,
Up where the Yoho forests grow,
There we shall camp beside a lake so blue,
There I shall tell my love to you,

Refrain

Out yonder, out yonder, etc., etc.

Refrain

Out yon-der — Out yon-der — I'll ride the trails with you — Out yon-der we'll wan-der — and bid all care a-dieu — We'll roam there
— find home there — we'll take a tent for two — Out yon-der — out yon-der — Where hearts are al-ways true — Out true. —
